To continue receiving our emails, add us to your address book.

If a student is experiencing a life-threatening mental health emergency during business hours, please call the Counseling Center (610-436-2301). (Monday – Friday from 8:00 a.m. – 4:00 p.m.)

If interested in mental health services, students will need to go through our Triage hours which are Monday – Friday between 1:00 - 3:00 pm. Unlike in previous years where students walked-in for counseling assistance, the Counseling Center will be offering online counseling services to enrolled students.

In these uncertain times, it is normal to experience increased feelings of stress, anxiety, depression, and other mental health concerns. As the university continues remote instruction in fall semester, the Counseling Center has adapted to providing support through one of three methods based on student needs and preference:

1. Counseling Center Fall Update
2. Office of Parent and Family Relations
3. Office of Financial Aid

Erica maintains a 4.0 GPA and is active in co-curricular activities and leadership training. She is currently interning remotely as an intern in the President's Office this past summer. A member of the Honors College, Erica believes in focusing on both her academic and extracurricular experiences.

Hello parents and family members of new Golden Rams! Whether your student just started their first semester of college or they transferred from another school, we are so happy to have you as part of the Ram Fam!

Your Ram has finished their first week of classes, but they're still new. We hope you'll continue to rely on New Student Programs' support now and throughout your WCU journey.

Summer orientation may be over, but New Student Programs is still here for you. Our mission is to welcome, assist, and support new students, families, and guests as they transition to, and through, the WCU community. That means if you or your Golden Ram need any help, reach out!

To assist with navigating this semester and supporting your student, we have created this calendar to highlight important dates and deadlines. Please review this calendar and share it with your student.

Welcome to the 2020-21 academic year! RAM families play an integral role in student success and navigating keeping your students safe and providing our renowned WCU education.

All Rights Reserved 2020, West Chester University of Pennsylvania