NEWS TO KNOW

Free Expression and Neutrality at UVU

In alignment with the Utah System of Higher Education's \(USHE\) guidance on institutional neutrality, UVU, including its leaders speaking on behalf of the institution, does not take official positions on political, social, or cultural controversies unless they directly impact our mission, operations, or core values. This neutrality ensures that our campus remains a true marketplace of ideas, where faculty, staff, and students are empowered to express viewpoints without institutional bias.

Faculty Senate President Update

Evelyn Porter

Faculty Senate President

As many of you know, Wioleta Fedeczko took a position in Academic Affairs and has to step down as Senate President. Faculty Senate bylaws state that the Vice President becomes President for the remainder of the three-year term. So, as luck (good or bad, I'll let you decide) would have it, you get me for the remainder of the academic year.
