

EXCELSIOR

Happy 2020 from nglccNY!

Looking back on our 2019 accomplishments:

Stick to Your 2020 Goals in the New Decade:

Don't abandon them at the end of January!

The New Year is an exciting time for change. We are still joyful from the holidays, we have (hopefully) had a time to rest and regroup, and there is a chance for a fresh start. We always go into the New Year with the best intentions: we will go to the gym more, eat less junk food, reach out to our friends more. We also go into the New Year with lofty business goals, such as increasing revenue and building a social media platform for our brands.

But, by February, we seem to lose the momentum in achieving these goals, and don't remember them until we are reviewing our year in December.

This year, the National LGBT Chamber of Commerce wanted to give our network of LGBTBEs and corporate partners five points of advice on how to keep your New Year's goals with you all year long!

January Long Island Members' Mixer

Today is the LAST DAY to Register!

The National LGBT Chamber of Commerce New York (nglccNY) invites you to the third Long Island Members' Mixer! We encourage members and their guests to attend and network with other LGBT leaders, business owners, and our Corporate Partners. Attending the Mixer allows you to make meaningful business connections, mingle with LGBT businesses, individuals and our allies to learn what's going on in the Long Island community.

Hosted by:

Location: Waves Salon • 100 East Main Street • Smithtown, NY 11787

Time: Tuesday • January 14, 2020

Mixer and Reception 6:30 PM - 8:30 PM

Attire: Business / Business Casual

Please note that if you have any questions regarding your membership status or member login credentials, contact our Director of nglccNY, Thomas "TJ" Chernick at Thomas@nglccNY.org.
