December 2023

Happy Holidays Colleague,

As I write this, I'm enjoying some quiet time for the holiday season at our family lodge in northern Saskatchewan. I hope that your belly is full and your heart happy after a joyous couple of days off (and maybe even some Boxing Day shopping)?

Our African clients are also enjoying some well-deserved downtime before the new year when everyone hits the ground running again.

Have we told you that most of our clients are joining us this coming March for the Emerging Destinations Road Show? We'll be visiting San Diego, Orange County and Los Angeles on the West Coast and Philadelphia, New York and Boston on the East Coast. If you're based at any of those locations (or nearby), please let us know and we'll send you an invite to one of our events!

Contact jenna@emergingdestinations.com.

Until then, have a very safe and happy New Years and all the best in 2024!

Warm regards,

Jenna, Ana & Jane
