

nglccNY Celebrates Black History Month!

During Black History Month, we celebrate the diversity of our business family and applaud our African-American members who strengthen our organization and make it even more powerful.

This month is a reminder about the importance of recognizing the members of our organization who are African American business owners, non-profit leaders, professional members, and advocates. They bolster our economic voice not only during Black History Month, but also throughout the year. Thank you!

Within a few months Phyllis had become a member and an ambassador; two years later she was chairing the program and has done so for five years now.
