Interested students are encouraged to check out each organization and see which one fits them best!

- For Fraternities, structured recruitment will occur the second week of classes, September 14-18! Eligibility is required to participate in recruitment. Sign up by scanning the QR code!

Fraternity and Sorority Life—It gives you a place and people to count on. Fraternities and sororities strive to enhance your college experience by challenging you to achieve academic excellence, develop your leadership skills, and provide you with friendships that will last well beyond graduation.

Membership in a fraternity or sorority is a lifelong commitment; relationships created during college last well beyond graduation.

Why join a Greek Organization?

- Joining a Greek organization is one way to make UWL seem smaller, friendlier and easier to handle. It’s also a way to be exposed to a larger community on campus.

- You'll quickly become connected to the university and students on campus through recruitment, projects, recruitment, and intramural events. You'll quickly become connected to the university and students on campus through recruitment, projects, recruitment, and intramural events.
