Interested students are encouraged to check out each organization and see which one fits them best!
- For Fraternities, structured recruitment will occur the second week of classes, September 14-18!
- For Sororities, primary recruitment will occur the first week of school, September 9-12!

How do you get involved?
- Membership in a fraternity or sorority is a lifelong commitment; relationships created during college last well beyond graduation.
- Membership in a fraternity or sorority is a lifelong commitment; relationships created during college last well beyond graduation.
- Fraternities and Sororities strive to enhance your college experience by challenging you to achieve academic excellence, develop your leadership potential, and give back to the local community.
- Fraternities and Sororities strive to enhance your college experience by challenging you to achieve academic excellence, develop your leadership potential, and give back to the local community.

Why join a Greek Organization?
- At their cores, Fraternities and Sororities are philanthropic organizations steeped in decades of customs and traditions. The men and women of these organizations dedicate themselves to bettering our community through service and leadership development.
- Members of Greek life are known for their high academic performance, leadership abilities, and social skills.
- Fraternities and Sororities can help you get involved on campus.

Stay Connected
- Students will receive a hold on their WINGS account prior to registration if the required courses have not been completed.

Sexual Assault Prevention Part 2 will be sent in October.

Required Online Training Course
- Students will receive a hold on their WINGS account prior to registration if the required courses have not been completed.

24th). Alcohol Edu for College Part 2 will be sent in September.

Update from Wellness and Health Advocacy
- All new incoming first-year students will receive a link in their UWL email accounts on August 17th as well, and will be due September 4th.

Eagle Guide Advice
- Tristin Rodriguez, a sophomore ROTC student, shares his experience and answer to the question, "Why did you join ROTC?"

Hi, I would love to hear from a panel of our students. Afterwards you are invited to attend the ROTC information session on September 7th from 10:00am to 12:00pm in the Port o' Call classroom in the Cartwright Center. You will tour the department as well as learn about the different opportunities available to you in ROTC.

View the video below to hear from one of our current student. I would be happy to arrange a phone call or zoom meeting if you have any questions or would like to talk about the program. Please check out the link below to hear from one of our current student.

Enjoy the rest of your summer and we look forward to seeing you this fall!

A Message from ROTC
- Hi, I am Tristian Rodriguez, a sophomore ROTC student, and I would love to share my experience with ROTC.
- I recently graduated from UWL and commissioned as an officer into the Army at the end of the Spring semester. I joined the ROTC program in the fall of my freshman year and have loved every minute of it.
- I would love to hear from you and answer any questions you may have. Please check out the link below to learn more about ROTC.

Check out this video about the COVE and hear about many ways you can get involved on campus.

The COVE
- Check out this video about the COVE and hear about many ways you can get involved on campus.

The Leadership and Involvement Center is located in the COVE. We offer volunteer programs, leadership programs, and can help you get involved on campus. We also host Involvement Fest, making a difference day, Clifton strengths programs, and many more. Please visit the COVE on the second floor of the Student Union to check out the activities we have going on in the fall. If you have any questions about the Leadership and Involvement Center, please email us at lic@uwlax.edu.