Why join a Greek Organization?

Fraternities and sororities are social organizations that provide students with essential opportunities to fully develop leadership skills, create long-lasting friendships, and explore their academic potential, and give back to the local community.

Joining a Greek organization is one way to make UWL seem smaller, friendlier and easier to handle. Fraternities and sororities are social organizations that provide students with essential opportunities to fully develop leadership skills, create long-lasting friendships, and explore their academic potential. The men and women of these organizations dedicate themselves to bettering themselves and their communities. At their cores, Fraternities and Sororities are philanthropic organizations steeped in decades of tradition and customs and traditions. The men and women of these organizations dedicate themselves to bettering themselves and their communities.
