Fraternity and Sorority Life

A student can join multiple fraternities/sororities.

Why join a Greek Organization?

- Membership in a fraternity or sorority is a lifelong commitment; relationships created during college last well beyond graduation.
- Fraternities and sororities allow students to meet many people through social events, service projects, recruitment, and intramural events. You’ll quickly become connected to the university and tapped into the available resources.
- Joining a Greek organization is one way to make UWL seem smaller, friendlier and easier to handle.
- Membership in a fraternity or sorority can be an added responsibility beyond graduation.
- Membership in a fraternity or sorority is a relief to the social experience in college, and makes the college experience by challenging you to achieve academic excellence, develop your leadership and life skills that will be beneficial for any career path. Army ROTC’s motto is “Leadership Excellence,” which means that as a U.S. Army Cadet, you will be a part of the Army, think of it like a test drive. Enroll in MS 101 and you will get an authentic view of what the military is and what it isn’t. Our goal is to teach students' leadership customs and traditions. The men and women of these organizations dedicate themselves to bettering our community through service and leadership development.

How do you get involved?

- How do you get involved? Beyond joining a Greek organization, there are various ways you can get involved beyond recruitment. For Sororities, primary recruitment will occur the first week of school, September 9-12! Registration for students is required to participate in recruitment. Sign up by scanning the QR code!
