Why join a Greek Organization?

- Joining a Greek organization is one way to make UWL seem smaller, friendlier and easier to handle—tapped into the available resources.
- Fraternities and sororities allow students to meet many people through social events, service projects, recruitment, and intramural events. You'll quickly become connected to the university and your peers when you join a Greek organization.
- Fraternities and sororities strive to enhance your college experience by challenging you to achieve academic excellence, develop your leadership potential, and give back to the local community.

How do you get involved?

The COVE

Check out this video about the COVE and hear about many ways you can get involved on campus.

The COVE is an online platform that gives you the ability to explore the different Student Organizations that are available on campus. Other activities that we host in the Leadership and Involvement Center are Make a Difference Day, CliftonStrengths workshops, and many more.

Please visit the COVE on the second floor of the Student Union and attend Involvement Fest, which takes place during the second week of each semester. Involvement Fest is a time for your leaders to explore the different Student Organizations that are available on campus.

A Message from ROTC

Hi,

SMU). I wanted to introduce myself & the school's ROTC program.

I recently graduated from UWL and commissioned as an officer into the Army at the end of the Spring semester. I joined the ROTC program in the fall of my freshman year as a way to be involved on campus.

If you're interested in learning more about our team, meet some great new people and get a free meal, come to the Port o' Call classroom in the Cartwright Center. You will tour the department as well as hear from a panel of our students. Afterwards you are invited to attend the ROTC Campus Grill Out for some food and lawn games. This is a great opportunity to learn more about our team, meet some great new people and get a free meal.

On September 7th, from 10:00am - 1:00pm we will be hosting the Eagle Battalion Campus Preview in the Port o' Call classroom. This is a perfect opportunity to learn how you can get involved in the ROTC program as a freshman—no obligation to make a decision to enroll in ROTC.

September 7th, from 10:00am - 1:00pm

In the Port o' Call classroom in the Cartwright Center.

In this video, you will hear from one of our current student. You will have the opportunity to ask questions and learn more about this program. You can also enroll in MS 101 at any time after this event.
