TOWN GUIDES

Here's what's on my September to-do list: Billy Elliot opens at Goodspeed, a Tiki Bar cruise in Noank, the Downton Abby movie (!!!), Hot Gobbler Sundaes at Ekonk Hill Turkey Farm (yup: turkey, stuffing, mashed potatoes, gravy, topped with cranberry sauce!), and must make reservations for Swallow Sail as they ALWAYS sell out. My husband, of course, will be at the New Haven Bike Grand Prix, but the rest of us will be sampling pies at the Apizza Fest in New Haven. Who says fall's no fun around here? See links below.

love, Erica

Bar Bites at La Marea

I am a small plates fanatic. Why gorge on one large portion (say a slab of salmon or a half a chicken), when you can feast on many flavors at a single dinner? Luckily, in this, I'm not alone. Most restaurants offer plenty of interesting appetizers that can be cobbled together to make a meal...

Timothy Pamment Salon, Madison

As forecasters in the Beauty Industry, the Timothy Pamment Salon transforms hair color and style before Vogue reports it. The Bob is going to have its beauty moment this Fall. Transforming the versatile cut is simple. A slick bob reads edgy or adding a uniform wave creates a glamorous style just in time for the holidays. The seasonal shift has richened hair color, from hot chocolate brunettes to buttery blondes. A hint of warmth is all that is needed to stand out. To book your Fall transformation, call the "It" Salon at 203-245-7707.
