September Brings Back-to-School Learning Opportunity and Open House Fun

From CT to MT to CA, this summer we trained over 175 educators in Structured Literacy! Thanks to The Transformative Reading Teacher Group, and to Decoding Dyslexia-CA and the San Mateo County SELPA for inviting us, bringing together so many engaged participants, and hosting us royally!

Is Structured Literacy Right for You and Your Students?
Read what Dr. Louise Spear-Swerling has to say: Here’s Why Schools Should Use Structured Literacy.

Our Fall 2019 Structured Literacy Series Begins September 26th!
We’re delighted to present the next series at our new office in Trumbull, CT. It will include three books in Literacy How’s Knowledge-to-Practice Professional Learning Series.

Learn More and Register TODAY!

REGISTER
Fall 2019
Structured Literacy Series

LITERACY HOW OPEN HOUSE
101 Merritt Blvd., Suite 210, Trumbull, CT
THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 19, 2019
4-7 PM
IF ATTENDING, RSVP
KIMBERD@LITERACYHOW.COM

IF ATTENDING, RSVP
KIMBERD@LITERACYHOW.COM

5 PM Sneak Preview by Margie Gillis
Comprehension: Knowledge to Practice
The fourth title in the Literacy How Professional Learning Series

Build a (Background) Knowledge Tree

Stop by for a signature cocktail or sparkling water
Mingle and munch with Margie and the team
Tour our new office
Enter a drawing for free books!

I’ll see you then!

Our mission: To empower teaching excellence to ensure that every child learns to read by third grade.

Literacy How is a 501(c)(3) nonprofit.