Breaking News: The Cook Carillon Clock Tower is Being Torn Down

Due to the high volume of student and staff complaints over several decades, Grand Valley will be taking down the famous Cook Carillon Tower. It's just way too loud. This will be a sad occasion for some, but many will rejoice because of the peace and quiet that will finally be coming to campus. Find out more about the final days of the clock tower while you either reminisce about your favorite memories or celebrate its departure.

Student Senate Elections are Here

It's time to vote for next year's Student Senate! The GVSU Student Senate is composed of 50 student-elected Lakers who work to run certain campus programs, organize events, and raise student concerns to the university administration. You can vote for senators online until April 4 at 11:59 p.m. Make sure your voice is heard!
