MLK Day of Service & Leadership

Join us for GW’s annual MLK Day of Service & Leadership to support DCPS Connected. The day will begin at 1pm EST with a virtual opening keynote presented by Clint Smith, author and activist. Joining us this year is Dr. Nickey's Cross, the founder of the public collective, Counting Crosses. Clint Smith will discuss his recently published book, "How the Word Is Passed," and is committed to providing quality tutoring for K-8 children in the DMV.

GHWB Kids Village

The GW Honey W. Nashman Center is committed to providing quality tutoring for K-8 children in the Washington, D.C. metro area. The Honey W. Nashman Center Kids Village is a place where children can get the help they need to reach their academic goals. The Kids Village is open Monday through Thursday from 4pm to 6pm. To be considered for tutoring services, students must meet certain criteria and can register for services at the Nashman Center.

SmartDC Interest Application

GW SMARTDC is a capacity building and service leadership program that connects GW students with direct and indirect service opportunities in D.C. Semester-long commitment required.
