HONEY W. NASHMAN CENTER FOR CIVIC ENGAGEMENT AND PUBLIC SERVICE

"Nothing stands between education and experience like the fear that they overlap. Instead, it’s only a shift that has happened." - Benjamin Frank Rice

Welcome to the Honey W. Nashman Center for Civic Engagement and Public Service where we aim to build a community that brings together students, faculty, and staff from across GW to realize the true potential of civic engagement.

In the midst of the national pandemic, we have reimagined our offerings to fit the moment and support virtual work and remote learning. Our focus is to inspire and inspire others to engage in powerful and reciprocal partnerships, engage politically active individuals nationwide, and advocate for local action in the District of Columbia.

GW Coders

GW Coders is a community that brings together students, faculty, and staff from across the university to support research, education, and engagement. GW Coders is open to all students, faculty, and staff who are interested in coding.

ARTREACH FALL CLASSES

ArtReach GW is a nonprofit organization with a mission to provide free, high quality fine arts education, expressive and therapeutic art classes, and art-based workshops tounderserved communities throughout the United States.

In the midst of the pandemic, we have found new ways to partner with community organizations and provide students with virtual opportunities to develop and apply their critical thinking, problem-solving, and interpersonal skills. ArtReach GW is currently offering virtual art classes online, sending supplies to students by mail, and teaching basic art techniques to students who need them.

We have spent our summer working on ways to continue our mission under new circumstances.

In order to support these initiatives, we have reimagined our offerings to fit the moment and support virtual work and remote learning.

GW Votes

We have worked with faculty across GW to support their efforts to continue community-engaged learning experiences. One example is described in the GW Today article titled "GW and D.C. Public Schools Launch New Community-Based Research Project.

In the midst of the national uprisings, we have redoubled our efforts to fight anti-Blackness and racial superstition. We have developed new programs and initiatives to address these issues.

CIVIC ENGAGEMENT AND PUBLIC SERVICE

Welcome Days of Service

The mission of the Honey W. Nashman Center is to build a community that brings together students, faculty, and staff from across GW to realize the true potential of civic engagement.
