HONEY W. NASHMAN CENTER FOR CIVIC ENGAGEMENT AND PUBLIC SERVICE

“Never doubt that a small group of thoughtful, committed citizens can change the world. Indeed, it’s the only thing that ever has.” - Margaret Mead

Community

Regarding the Honey W. Nashman Center for Civic Engagement and Public Service, the need to support community-oriented policies and programs is critical to building healthy neighborhoods and improving social outcomes. In this time of need, we recognize the importance of engaging in civic action and volunteering.

INTERNSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

GW STUDENTS HELP D.C. CHILDREN LEARN SOCIAL JUSTICE

ArtReach GW is a nonprofit organization with a mission to provide free, high quality fine arts education, expressive and therapeutic art classes, and creative spaces for all D.C. residents. ArtReach GW will offer workshops virtually over the SummerTrek Changemakers program, a new July 6-9 program for students participating in GW’s Summer for DC program. This program will use the arts to help students develop the social justice skills they will need to thrive in college and beyond. GW students will work with ArtReach GW to plan workshops and teach arts skills to D.C. residents.
