HONEY W. NASHMAN CENTER FOR CIVIC ENGAGEMENT AND PUBLIC SERVICE

Welcome, to the Honey W. Nashman Center for Civic Engagement and Public Service!

This email was sent to .

Washington, DC | 20052 United States
837 22nd St NW

View this email
Got this as a forward?
Manage

GIVING OPPORTUNITIES

To apply, email Cherry.Miales@gwu-hospital.com

Learn more about the internship

Ron and Joy Paul Kidney Center
Passionate about healthcare and social media

BECOME A SOCIAL INTERNSHIP OPPORTUNITIES

SERVICE OPPORTUNITIES

and graduate students; for faculty in any discipline; and for others in the DC community who want to address their needs and mission and to engage GW faculty and students in powerful and meaningful research and service this year through virtual partnerships.

In the midst of political chaos in our country, we have focused our efforts on nonpartisan efforts to engage community members in civic engagement and service opportunities. Veteran Day of Service.

On September 11, 2001, the GW Coders community was formed to support the people who were impacted by the terrorist attacks on the World Trade Center and the Pentagon.

GW Coders website has gone fully virtual! We are serving with local and national nonprofits and are happy to announce that the fall schedule is below

The Honey W. Nashman Center for Civic Engagement and Public Service is a non-profit organization with a mission to develop engaged, responsible citizens and leaders.

HEALTHY EXCITED YOUTH

When D.C. Public Schools and many charters hold classes remotely this fall, students need reliable digital devices and internet access. Learn more about how to help in our PPE for DC students.

The Honey W. Nashman Center for Civic Engagement and Public Service is a non-profit organization with a mission to develop engaged, responsible citizens and leaders.

HEALTHY EXCITED YOUTH

When D.C. Public Schools and many charters hold classes remotely this fall, students need reliable digital devices and internet access. Learn more about how to help in our PPE for DC students.

The Honey W. Nashman Center for Civic Engagement and Public Service is a non-profit organization with a mission to develop engaged, responsible citizens and leaders.