June 2024

Dear Colleague,

I hope you're enjoying summer. I was able to feel the warm sun and take advantage of long days because I've been in the U.S. the last 2 weeks.

Jane and I had an amazing time in North Carolina at ATTA's Adventure Elevate. Prior to that, I was in Maryland attending the Travel Leaders Edge Conference on behalf of Las Torres Patagonia. For those of you I saw there, it was so nice to meet you in person and put a face to the name/emails!

I invite you to take a thorough read of this month's newsletter for awesome blogs and the latest news and amazing deals from our Americas portfolio. This includes special offers for last-minute travelers still looking for a summer getaway (what about sailing the Galapagos with Enchanted Expeditions?) and fantastic opportunities for the end-of-year Festive Season (did you know you can do a villa buy-out in places like River House Lodge in Patagonia and La Coralina Island House in the Caribbean?).

Let us know if you have any questions or would like to schedule a Zoom call for a deeper dive into any of our beautiful destinations in Central and South America.

Best regards,

Ana (on behalf of the Emerging Destinations team)

La Coralina Island House

- The nesting season of sea turtles stands as a premier spectacle in Bocas del Toro, eagerly anticipated by many. Spanning from March to August, this natural marvel offers glimpses of these majestic creatures as they nest along the Panamanian coast. Four distinct species of sea turtles grace our shores: the hawksbill, the loggerhead, the leatherback, and the green. Those ones (the green turtles) embark on a migration during July and August, traversing the coastline to nest upon the sands of Tortuguero and Isla Colon. Read more here
