A Reflection from your Protestant Chaplain

Dear Tufts community,

For many Christians, this is Easter Week, a time to rejoice in celebration of Christ's Resurrection from the dead. In the Gospels (the biblical accounts of Jesus' life), there are several stories that speak of the Risen Savior appearing to the disciples and others in bodily form. One of my favorite post-Resurrection appearances is found in Luke, chapter 24, which describes Jesus' followers walking from Jerusalem to a village named Emmaus. On their way, Jesus appears next to them and begins walking and talking with them. The whole time they have no idea that it is Christ and think that he's just some stranger.

Then, they arrive at Emmaus, sit down for dinner, and a miracle occurs. Scripture says that Jesus "took bread, blessed and broke it, and gave it to them. Then their eyes were opened, and they recognized him; and he vanished from their sight" (verse 31, NRSV). In my Episcopal Church tradition, we have a prayer that accompanies this story, which includes these words: "O God, whose blessed Son made himself known to his disciples in the breaking of bread: Open the eyes of our faith, that we may behold him in all his redeeming work" (The Book of Common Prayer, 1979).

I love this idea that the Divine can be made known to us through food and fellowship, among friends and perhaps especially with the strangers who cross paths with every day. When we open the eyes of our hearts and minds to behold God in each other and in every person who comes across our path - even and especially those we do not yet know - we experience the Divine.

May the promise of new life, celebrated this Eastertide and springtime, be yours.

Blessings,
The Reverend Dan Bell
Protestant Chaplain

Hiring Interfaith Ambassador for Fall 2024

Apply by Wednesday, April 10

The Interfaith Ambassador Program is a student leadership program for undergraduate students. This team works in collaboration with University Chaplaincy staff, campus student leaders and organizations, and community groups to create more inclusive multifaith spaces on campus. Ambassadors offer opportunities to bring people of diverse backgrounds and beliefs together for reflection, community-building, advocacy, and service. The Ambassador team is supervised by the University Chaplain and receives guidance and support from the whole Chaplaincy team. They also actively partner with student organizations and university offices across campus. Ambassadors work 6 – 8 hours per week. Hours include weekly team meetings and scheduled hours for study, program development, and program leadership. Please email University Chaplain Elyse Nelson Winger with questions and find the position on Handshake below.

TECH AGNOSTIC

Humanist Chaplain at Harvard and MIT

New York Times Bestselling Author of Good Without God

THURSDAY, APRIL 11

12:00-1:30P

LUNCH PROVIDED

INTERFAITH CENTER
58 WINTHROP ST

Today's technology has overtaken religion as the chief influence on twenty-first century life and community. In his new book, Tech Agnostic: How Technology Became the World's Most Powerful Religion, and Why It Desperately Needs a Reformation, Harvard and MIT's influential humanist chaplain Greg Epstein explores what it means to be a critical thinker with respect to this new faith.

Encouraging readers to reassert their common humanity beyond the seductive sheen of "tech," this book argues for tech agnosticism—not worship—as a way of life. Without suggesting we return to a mythical pre-tech past, Epstein shows why we must maintain a freethinking critical perspective toward innovation until it proves itself worthy of our faith or not.

This is an exclusive book pre-release event for the Tufts community. Tufts ID required.

Ramadan

Mon., Mar. 11 – Wed., Apr. 10, 2024

Tradition: Islam

The Holy Month of Ramadan is the month of fasting during which Muslims who are physically able do not eat or drink from the first sign of dawn until sunset in honor of the first revelations to the Prophet Muhammad. The evening meal is celebrated with family.

Great Lent

Mon., Mar. 18 – Sat., May 4, 2024

Tradition: Christianity-Orthodox

In Orthodox churches, the first day of Lent marks the beginning of the Great Fast, the final six weeks of a 10-week period leading up to Holy Week and Easter (Pascha). In the churches that follow the Gregorian calendar, Lent is a six-week observance (40 days excluding Sundays) beginning with Ash Wednesday and culminating in Holy Week. It is a time of repentance and sacrifice in preparation for Easter.

Anniversary of the Founding of the Church

Sat., Apr. 6, 2024

Tradition: Latter Day Saints

Annual World General Conference of the Church held on Saturday and Sunday closest to this date each year.

Laylat al-Qadr

Sat., Apr. 6, 2024

Tradition: Islam

The Night of Power or Destiny commemorates the first revelation of the Qur'an (the Islamic scriptures) to Prophet Muhammad in 610 CE.

Eid al-Fitr ('Id al-Fitr)

Tue., Apr. 9 – Fri., Apr. 12, 2024

Tradition: Islam

Also known as the Festival of the Breaking of the Fast. One of the two main Islamic festivals (the other is Eid al-Adha), this day celebrates the end of Ramadan, the month of fasting. It comes on the first day of the next lunar month, Shawal.
