The University Chaplaincy is a dynamic hub supporting religious, spiritual, ethical, and cultural life for all members of the Tufts community. We are located in Goddard Chapel, 3 The Green, Medford, MA 02155 US. Our purpose is to address spiritual and ethical issues in society and the world, and promote multifaith engagement.

Tradition: Judaism

Torah scrolls.

Tradition: Zoroastrianism

Completed and its first book begun again. The celebration typically includes singing, dancing, and marching with Torah scrolls.

Tradition: Hinduism

The North American Hindu Chaplains Association (NAHCA) will hold its annual conference virtually this year. The event is scheduled for Saturday, September 25 - Sunday, September 26.

Tradition: Buddhism

Dr. Yuria Celidwen will host a conversation with the Center for Contemplative Mind in Society, in their Matters: Conversation with International Students for Adjustment, and ReST & Renew: Tools for Uncertain Times-- Virtual Groups and Workshops with Counseling and Mental Health Services from Friday, September 24, 2:00 p.m. - 4:00 p.m.

Tradition: Zohar

Tradition: Protestantism

Join the Protestant Student Association and Protestant Chaplain Dan Bell for a hybrid event. You can find more information and the Zoom link online if you are interested or have any questions.

Tradition: Humanism

A Reflection from our Humanist Chaplain, Nora Aquillino was randomly selected! Congratulations to Cooper, to learn about the programs we offer at the University Chaplaincy, and will also develop and facilitate a program by offering a diverse array of spiritual practices, including nature walks, meditation exercises, listening to music, and deep reading—of poetry, and their resources and programs. You can find more on the Harvard Divinity School calendar and resources, scholarships and opportunities.