The University Chaplaincy is a dynamic hub supporting religious, spiritual, ethical, and cultural life for all members of Tradition: Baha’i Fri., Nov. 25, 2022
remembered not only for his defense of the Sikh faith, but also of Hinduism and of religious liberty.

These events are drawn from the multifaith calendar maintained by the Office of Religious and Spiritual Life at Supporting dynamic programs at Tufts University in religious, spiritual, ethical, and cultural life is easy and vital to

Harvard Divinity School calendar into Harvard Square. Volunteers travel together and we will send new folks with returners to offer members to their two keynote speaker conversations. The speakers bring deep wells of knowledge,

Unlearning Retreat for BIPOC Students 100 percent of demonstrated financial aid need and our mission that all voices, perspectives, and lived critical funds to support the financial aid needs of current SMFA students, ensuring our ability to meet

Friday, November 4, 10:00 a.m. - 8:00 p.m. and Saturday November 5, and Sunday November 6, 10:00

Council, and second as Mayor of Cambridge. At the age of two, Mayor Siddiqui immigrated to the their Fall Speaker Event. Mayor Siddiqui is currently serving her third term on the Cambridge City

s

s

our inner world in relation to the external world. We welcome Dr. Kelli Morgan to be with us. She is a

Unlearning Retreat for BIPOC Students

musicians from across Tufts for an evening of specially selected music for Protestant Evening Worship speeches. This year’s speaker is "We Don’t Have Much Time: Raising Consciousness and Building the Future

On November 29, join Tufts University alumni, friends, faculty, staff, and students in supporting the Giving Tuesday is in Four Weeks organization, clarity, creativity, originality, and relationship to the 2023 theme. There will be a cash prize team for the Celebration will choose up to three winners. The winners will be chosen based on

The 2023 guiding quote is from King’s book spoken word, songs, art, or performances - to be considered and join the January 30 celebration.

coordinated by the Africana Center, Tisch College of Civic Life, and the University Chaplaincy. We ask

Interested undergraduates and graduate students are invited to submit creative responses for this

MLK Student Voices Award

Engineering first and second years are invited on November 16. Find reflections and small group conversations. A&S first and second years are invited on November 9 and Wednesday November 9 and November 16, 12:00 p.m. - 1:00 p.m., Coolidge Room event will be followed by sweets and warm drinks outside. Please join us for a night of candlelight,

In Living Memory: A Concert of Stories and Songs

This process of integration is what we honor this week with many interconnected religious and cultural celebrations this time of year including Día de los Muertos connection is possible with those who have passed, in some way. That might mean that the spirit of between the living and those who have passed are made porous and inviting.

Songs

hemisphere. It is positioned halfway between the fall equinox and the winter solstice on October 31-as one of the most important religious holidays in the Jewish calendar. It commemorates the Shavuot, or the giving of the Torah. It is also known as the "Day of Pentecost" or "Festival of First gathering of the Israelites at Mount Sinai; according to the Hebrew Bible, God gave the Ten Commandments

As we approach the start of the Jewish holiday of Shavuot,

In Living Memory: A Concert of Stories and Songs

Program Manager

E-NEWS  11.02.22

Subscribe to our email list.