Friends of the Peabody at PA Reunion Weekend

Peabody Advisory Committee members Jenny Elkus (PAC Chair, '92), Brandon Stroman ('97), Phillips Academy History and Social Science faculty member, Marcelle Doheny (P'18), and Peabody Curator of Collections, Marla Taylor, hosted a Peabody table during Phillips Academy Reunion Weekend this month. PA staff, alumni, and their families explored materials from the Peabody's education collection and learned more about the current Peabody Renovation Project.

Reunion Weekend

Contributed by Marla Taylor

Each year, Phillips Academy Reunion Weekend is held on the second weekend of June where alumni return to celebrate their respective reunion years and reconnect with their PA community. This year the Peabody did things a little differently, while the building is currently under construction. Read on to learn more!

The Peabody Institute has a history with New Mexico stretching back to 1915 and the beginning of Alfred Kidder's nearly fifteen yearlong excavation at Pecos Pueblo outside of Santa Fe. In May Peabody Director, Ryan Wheeler, had an opportunity to visit New Mexico, with stops at the Pueblo of Jemez and Pecos National Historical Park. Read on for more!
