Contents of this Month's Update

• The CINA Center pursues a comprehensive set of programs and activities that are designed to equip practitioners, end users, decision makers, and U.S. policy makers in the homeland security enterprise with the tools and expertise they need to help combat the growing threat of transnational crime.

• The CINA center pursues three categories of workforce and professional development activities related to its mission of disabling transnational criminal organizations.

• Learn more about the program

NEWS

Research using honey bees to solve some great national attention

CINA-sponsored students participate in DHS CINA Critical Infrastructure Hackathon

Mason student team wins $3,000 prize

On February 25-27, 2022, a collaboration of DHS Centers of Excellence including CINA offered a virtual Infrastructure Hackathon.

Read more

RESEARCH

Research using honey bees to solve some great national attention

Contents of this Month's Update

• The CINA Center pursues a comprehensive set of programs and activities that are designed to equip practitioners, end users, decision makers, and U.S. policy makers in the homeland security enterprise with the tools and expertise they need to help combat the growing threat of transnational crime.

• The CINA center pursues three categories of workforce and professional development activities related to its mission of disabling transnational criminal organizations.

• Learn more about the program

NEWS

Research using honey bees to solve some great national attention

CINA-sponsored students participate in DHS CINA Critical Infrastructure Hackathon

Mason student team wins $3,000 prize

On February 25-27, 2022, a collaboration of DHS Centers of Excellence including CINA offered a virtual Infrastructure Hackathon.

Read more

RESEARCH

Research using honey bees to solve some great national attention

CINA-sponsored students participate in DHS CINA Critical Infrastructure Hackathon

Mason student team wins $3,000 prize

On February 25-27, 2022, a collaboration of DHS Centers of Excellence including CINA offered a virtual Infrastructure Hackathon.

Read more

WORKFORCE DEVELOPMENT

2021 CINA Summer Research Teams receive follow-on funding

As part of the CINA Accelerator Program, CINA solicited interest from 20 students from George Mason University and GMU-MSI affiliated students from the Sul Ross University to select, research, and offer solutions to one of three problem statements.

Read the annual report

WORKFORCE Development Overview

The CINA Center provides several categories of training opportunities to enhance workforce readiness. Our training opportunities are tailored to the needs of the students and the needs of the organizations they serve. Our goal is to provide students and organizations with the skills they need to work with DHS data.

Read the annual report

DISTINGUISHED SPEAKER SERIES

Marie Tillyer: "True Source Data and Prediction Modeling for High-Density Crime Areas"

The CINA Center series, a collaboration of the Center for Applied Proteomics and Molecular Medicine and the Office of Crime Prevention, Outreach, and Education (CPOE), is designed to present world-renowned experts in criminology and criminal justice.

Read the annual report

Stay Connected