Event Calendar

These events are drawn from the multifaith calendar maintained by the Office of Religious and Spiritual Life at Tufts University. They are intended to provide a range of perspectives and faith traditions to the Tufts community. The calendar serves as a resource for students, faculty, and staff to learn about and participate in the religious and spiritual life of the university. The Office of Religious and Spiritual Life at Tufts University is committed to providing an inclusive environment where all individuals can explore and practice their faith and engage in community and social justice work.
