Upcoming Religious Holidays and Festivals

- Tufts Black Christian Students Association
- Tufts Baha'i Students Association
- Humanist Community at Tufts: Open Creative Group Space: Sundays, 7:00 p.m. - 8:00 p.m., Interfaith Center
- Sacrament of Reconciliation: Before or After Sunday Liturgy
- Sundays
- Tufts Hillel: Shabbat Lunch and Discussions, Saturdays, Noon, Granoff Family Hillel Center
- Guided Meditation and Tea led by Buddhist Chaplain Priya Sraman, Noon, Goddard Chapel
- Fridays
- Catholic Hour Spiritual Practice: 7:00 p.m. - 8:00 p.m., Goddard Chapel
- Tuesdays
- Guided Meditation and Tea led by Buddhist Chaplain Priya Sraman, Noon, Goddard Chapel
- Thursdays
- Purim: Ends at sundown.
- Purim (Feast of Lots)
- Saturday, March 7, 2020
- This day commemorates the deliverance of the Jews from the evil plots of Haman, who was driven to his death by the lot. Purim is a day of feasting, which is read at this time.
- Purim is a joyous holiday, celebrated by wearing costumes, giving gifts to friends, giving to the poor, and socializing. Preceded by the Fast of Esther, Purim is a day of feasting. Begins at sundown.

The Catholic Hour Spiritual Practice is an opportunity for students and faculty to reflect on their spirituality and connect with others in a guided session. The practice is led by the Catholic Chaplain, Lynn Cooper, and is open to all interested participants.

Applications are accepted until March 21 for the CAIR-MA summer internships. CAIR-MA is a non-profit organization that advocates for the rights of Muslims in the United States. The internships offer a unique opportunity to contribute to their mission and gain valuable experience in the field of community advocacy and education. To apply, visit the CAIR-MA website and submit your application before March 15, 2020.

Check out this new scholarship for current Jewish-identifying college students who are exemplary leaders. Please apply before March 15, 2020. For more information, contact chaplaincy@tufts.edu. This event is sponsored by the University Chaplaincy.

Applications are accepted until March 21 for the LGBT Center intern Hiring. The first round of interviews will be held in the Boston office, in the fields of Government Affairs and Community Advocacy and Education. If you are interested in a scholarship opportunity that will cover conference registration, please check the event for more information.

Gathering in Rome at all these events, students interact with exceptional and inspiring scholars. Information about the Rome conference is available on their website. The conference presents a unique opportunity to amplify critical voices and perspectives that have been left behind by marginalized LGBTQ+ individuals.

The Interfaith Student Council invites all to engage in our fourth-annual Interfaith Awareness Action, which will be held at Tufts University on Thursday, March 5, 2020, 6:00 p.m., Breed Memorial Hall, 51 Winthrop Street. The Interfaith Awareness Action aims to promote understanding and respect for people of different faiths and cultures, and to foster a sense of community and belonging among students. Participants will gather in Rome at all these events, students interact with exceptional and inspiring scholars. Information about the Rome conference is available on their website. The conference presents a unique opportunity to amplify critical voices and perspectives that have been left behind by marginalized LGBTQ+ individuals.

Visit the website of the Catholic Chaplaincy at Tufts University for more information about upcoming events and opportunities. The Catholic Chaplaincy provides spiritual and religious support to students and faculty, and encourages them to explore their faith in a supportive and welcoming environment.

Subscribe to the E-NEWS to stay updated on upcoming events and opportunities at Tufts University. You can unsubscribe at any time by clicking the unsubscribe link in the E-NEWS.