is a highlight of our interfaith programming each year and welcomes a new class into our community each year. Applications due by Wednesday, January 26, 11:59 p.m. ET.

Anthony's project, in their own words, will be to support the Humanist Association 2021 Empowering Action grant award for their work. In this new section, we will uplift their work and meaningfully center religious diversity in higher education — academically, programmatically, and spiritually.

Our chaplains do work and ministry in many settings, and contribute to their fields and communities through service, research, scholarship, and writing. This past Sunday, Pope Francis called for prayers of peace. Drop by Goddard Chapel for to pray in community as we orient our hearts towards connection, dignity, and mercy.
