LSU Family Weekend

A Note from the President

Dear Parent/Guardian,

As your student settles into the academic year, we hope they are enjoying their time at LSU. We want to take this opportunity to welcome you to campus and share some exciting events happening this weekend.

Family Weekend:

The LSU Student Union is hosting Family Weekend on October 11-13. There are many activities planned for families to enjoy, including the LSU UREC’s first ever Bench Press Competition on October 11. Pre-lims are on October 11, and the finals are on October 12. Admission is free to the general public.

Intramural Sports:

We have a lot of Intramural Sports, too. Whether your student is interested in playing sports like volleyball, soccer, or frisbee, or wants to try something new like Intramural Sand Volleyball, there’s something for everyone. They can also participate in the LSU-U REC’s 2018-2019 academic wall calendars, which includes the cost of shipping. Families may purchase up to two calendars.

UREC facilities and free GroupX classes? They are also eligible to register for Intramural Sports, Adventure Trips, and so much more. Being engaged with LSU UREC is a great way to stay involved in your student’s college experience.

UREC:

University Recreation:

University College:

Campus Transit provides free transportation across LSU from 5:30 p.m. to midnight every day.

Staying Safe:

The Counseling Center provides a series of family-focused programs to support parents and families. A stress management workshop is scheduled for October 25. It includes yoga & meditation, self-care, mindfulness and stress management techniques. Free transportation is provided to and from the workshop.

Residential Life:

The Campus Apartments start leasing February 1, 2019. Nominations are due November 1st, 2018. For more info, go to LSU Family Facebook Page. Are you an Undergraduate Researcher? Is there an awesome faculty mentor you want to recognize? Nominate your mentor and they could win $2,000. #randomactsofkindness around campus. Follow them on Instagram, Matherne’s Market and LSU Food Pantry.

Love, LSU Dining:

LSU Dining put on the first ever Farmer’s Market, featuring LSU students who have started their own small businesses. They’re giving back to LSU students in a big way.

Fall Harvest:

The LSU Student Union will host the Fall Harvest and Carved House on October 14-21. The LSU Student Union will bring the community together for a week-long celebration that includes: a pop-up farmer’s market, fall-themed class offerings, and a variety of social events. More info here.

Now that your student has settled into the semester, you may find it beneficial for them to see the 2018-2019 Academic Calendar. To see the 2018-2019 Academic Calendar, please click on underlined events for more information about shuttle dates, times, costs, and to register.

Staying organized is key to having a good semester. Campus Secret Service has added a new online appointment system for students who need a late fee. You may contact Bursar Operations at bursar@lsu.edu with questions.

Staying Connected:

Did you know Middleton Library is open 24 hours a day, 5 days a week? Many students prefer to study at night, and we’re here to support those needs.

LSU Student Support:

LSU UREC”s first ever Bench Press Competition is this October! Pre-lims are on October 11. Admission is free to the general public. LSU UREC”s first ever Bench Press Competition is this October! Pre-lims are on October 11. Admission is free to the general public. LSU UREC”s first ever Bench Press Competition is this October! Pre-lims are on October 11. Admission is free to the general public. LSU UREC”s first ever Bench Press Competition is this October! Pre-lims are on October 11. Admission is free to the general public. LSU UREC”s first ever Bench Press Competition is this October! Pre-lims are on October 11. Admission is free to the general public. LSU UREC”s first ever Bench Press Competition is this October! Pre-lims are on October 11. Admission is free to the general public.