April update
KEEPING YOU TOUCH

A NOTE FROM THE PRESIDENT

F. King Alexander

Dear families,

As always, thank you for trusting us with your Tiger. For those of you who are in the area or are planning to visit, you are invited to attend the graduation ceremony, which will be held on May 10-11:

- May 8: Undergraduate Convocation. Ceremony celebrating the achievements of our undergraduate students.
- May 10-11: Two commencement ceremonies for undergraduate and graduate students.
- May 12: May Day. A day of community service and education.
- May 14: College of Agriculture Convocation. Special ceremony for students in the College of Agriculture.

Is your Tiger thinking about taking summer courses at LSU? Summer courses offer a variety of benefits, such as the ability to complete your degree sooner, refresh your mind before the fall semester, or explore new topics of interest.

Supplemental Instruction (SI) is a series of weekly study sessions offered for students enrolled in historically difficult courses. Students who attend SI sessions typically earn a 0.5 letter grade higher than students who do not attend. For more information and to register, please contact the Center for Academic Success.

As the spring semester draws to a close, we encourage you to encourage your students to participate in commencement events. Participating in commencement is a significant milestone in their academic journey.

Cap and Gowns now available at the Barnes & Noble Bookstore: Cap and gowns are available for pickup at the bookstore. Please make sure to pick up your caps and gowns before the commencement ceremony.

Students who didn't get their preferred campus apartment? Campus Apartment Wait Lists Open: LSU UREC offers 10 weeks of Tiger's Den Summer camp and Tiger's Den: Summer Housing Sign-Ups: The LSU Student Union is now open for business! LSU UREC offers 10 weeks of Tiger's Den Summer camp.

Any parents with a future Tiger aged 6-12? Tiger's Den Summer Camp: Our Tiger's Den summer camp is open to children aged 6-12. Join us for a EPIC egg hunt in the LSU Student Union April 10...

Can you believe it's already time to start thinking about the fall semester? Summer courses offer a variety of benefits, such as the ability to complete your degree sooner, refresh your mind before the fall semester, or explore new topics of interest.
