Stay Connected to your Tiger’s LSU Experience

Summer courses offer a variety of benefits, such as the ability to earn credits, reconnect with friends, and explore new subjects. Is your Tiger thinking about taking summer courses at LSU?

Make history on April 30, the first LSU Giving Day:

Give today to support our students, faculty, and Malvezzi Center for Academic Success. Every gift, no matter the size, makes a difference.

Student Philanthropy

The Student Philanthropy Emergency Support Fund is an important resource for students facing unexpected hardships. Our goal is to provide immediate financial relief to students for natural disasters, family hardships, and other emergencies. The fund is made possible by donations from alumni, parents, and friends.

The Student Philanthropy Emergency Support Fund is a deeply instilled trait – one that our students bring with them to LSU and carry forward in their future endeavors.

Encourage your Tiger to participate in the LSU Giving Day by making a gift of any LSU fund. Your support is critical to our students’ success.

Encourage your Tiger to get involved in the Annual LSU Discover Day Research and Creativity Symposium. Did you know that this event is free and open to the public? Come check out the student research and creative work at the annual LSU Discover Day Research and Creativity Symposium. More than 1,500 members of LSU community, including students, faculty, and alumni, attend the event and attend the annual LSU Discover Day Research and Creativity Symposium.

Encourage your Tiger to consider registering for one of the SI (Study) sessions offered for students enrolled in historically difficult courses. Students who attend three or more SI sessions typically earn a 0.5 letter grade higher than students who do not.

 LSU Discover Day: May 10-11: African American Cultural Center on the LSU campus will feature an information fair on May 10, a keynote musical performance by the LSU Brass Ensemble on May 11, and a reception for students and families.

As the academic year comes to a close, I want to extend my gratitude to all of the members of the LSU community who have contributed to our Tiger’s success. Your generosity and support have made a meaningful difference in the lives of our students.
