The University Chaplaincy is a dynamic hub supporting religious, spiritual, ethical, and cultural life for all members of the Tufts community. This day celebrates Gobind Singh Ji’s passing on guruship to Scripture, henceforth known as the Guru Granth. The Birth of the Bab is a significant event in the Bahá’í Faith. Tradition: Zoroastrianism is an ancient faith that originates from Persia. The Wisdom Dharma Chats are conversations on the intersection of wisdom traditions and the world’s needs, told through stories and discuss life-changing practices, timeless philosophies, and new ways to think and live. The Chats are a way for us to learn from each other and grow in wisdom.

On Sunday, November 1, at 4:00 p.m. ET, Tufts University’s Africana Spirituality Chaplaincy will present a webinar titled “Traditions of Liberation and Justice.” The webinar will explore the historical and contemporary ideas of justice within the African American religious tradition and how it can inform and shape our understanding of justice in contemporary society. The webinar will feature speakers Dr. Conrad M. Aiken, Jr., a Professor of Religion at Boston University, and Dr. Vivian Johnson, a Professor of Religion at Harvard Divinity School. The webinar will be moderated by Professor Julkeilin Miller, a Professor of Religion at Tufts University. To register for the webinar, please visit our website.

You are most welcome to support the University Chaplaincy. Supporting dynamic programs at Tufts University in religious, spiritual, ethical, and cultural life is easy and vital to our mission. To make a donation, please click on the button below. Thank you for your generosity.

The Catholic and Protestant Chaplaincies are seeking to address this spiritual crisis by offering retreats and training programs. One such program is the Rooting Out Racism: An Online Retreat for White Christian Folks, which is a pray-at-your-own-pace online retreat consisting of streaming audio reflections and texts. The retreat is led by Dr. Day McCallister, an ordained minister in the United Church of Christ. The retreat takes place from Friday, October 16, at 9:30 a.m. to Friday, October 16, at 4:30 p.m. ET. To register for the retreat, please visit our website.

The conference Ukraine is Not Yet Dead: Religion, Pluralism and Domestic and International Politics is taking place on Friday, October 16, from 9:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. ET. The conference will examine the significance of religion in Ukraine, as well as the ongoing issues of domestic and international politics. The conference will be held at the Tisch Center in the Maine Street Complex. Light refreshments will be provided. To register for the conference, please visit our website.

Join the Tufts LGBT Center in celebrating National Coming Out Day on Friday, October 16, from 9:30 a.m. to 4:30 p.m. ET. The center will host an event called Visions of Peace, which will feature workshops on LGBTQ+ identity, community building, and advocacy. The event will be held at the Tisch Center in the Maine Street Complex. Light refreshments will be provided. To register for the event, please visit our website.

For Zoom links to any offering listed above, please visit our website.