The University Chaplaincy is a dynamic hub supporting religious, spiritual, ethical, and cultural life for all members of the Tufts community. We provide pastoral care, support religious and philosophical communities, educate about Scripture, henceforth known as the Guru Granth Sahib, and more.

This day celebrates Gobind Singh Ji's passing on guruship to the Guru Granth Sahib in 1699. It marks the end of a three-year period of reflection and meditation by the previous guru, Guru Tegh Bahadur, on the nature of divinity and the role of the spiritual leader. The anniversary of the birth of Baha'u'llah, the founder of the Baha'i faith. Work is suspended on this day.

Saturday, October 10

Harvard Divinity School. To see more upcoming religious holidays and festivals, please follow the link to chaplaincy@tufts.edu.

Wisdom Dharma Chats

The Rev. Dr. Pauli Murray fiercely challenged social, political, and religious powers in the quest for equality for all members of the Black community. She was a feminist, an abolitionist, a civil rights activist, and a religious leader. The Rev. Dr. Pauli Murray was a voice for justice and equality for all. She was a mentor and friend to many. She was a guiding light for those who sought to make the world a better place.

Sunday, November 1, 4:00 p.m. ET

The annual lecture, Wisdom Dharma Chats, will be held at Harvard Divinity School. The lecture is open to the public and is free of charge. The lecture is open to the public and is free of charge. The lecture is open to the public and is free of charge.

The Rev. Dr. Pauli Murray fiercely challenged social, political, and religious powers in the quest for equality for all members of the Black community. She was a feminist, an abolitionist, a civil rights activist, and a religious leader. She was a voice for justice and equality for all. She was a mentor and friend to many. She was a guiding light for those who sought to make the world a better place.

Tisch Roof and Boston glass windows. I gaze through the antique yellow and lavender glass at an impressionistic Tisch Roof and Boston glass windows. I gaze through the antique yellow and lavender glass at an impressionistic Tisch Roof and Boston glass windows. I gaze through the antique yellow and lavender glass at an impressionistic Tisch Roof and Boston glass windows.

Now is the time to learn and to unlearn, to grow and change, to repair the world. Now is the time to bring every question from every direction, discipline and worldview; every spiritual hunger; every yearning; every heart and every mind. Now is the time for us to continue to work together for the common good, wholeness, healing and health of all. We cannot go it alone.

Check in with a Chaplain

Anya Tisdale and sophomore Zainab Olushoga in a conversation that dives into what it means to build connection and community in these trying times.

Speaking Facts Series with the Africana Center

Partner Programs

Rooting Out Racism: An Online Retreat for White Christian Folks

Naftali Brawer, a pray-at-your-own-pace online retreat consisting of streaming audio reflections and prayer prompts. It invites white Christians to search their souls, understand how Christianity has contributed to a spiritual crisis. The Catholic and Protestant Chaplaincies are seeking to address this spiritual crisis by creating a safe space for white Christians to explore their faith and engage in meaningful conversations about racism and its impact on society.

Chaplain Elyse. I am excited to meet you and to learn about your passions, questions, and communities. Grab a coffee or tea and let's talk.

Muslim Chaplaincy Offerings

For more information about any of the offerings listed, please visit the Muslim Chaplaincy website.

Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints (Mormons)

To register; after registration, you will receive the Zoom link.

JumboVote is a nonpartisan, student-led organization at Tufts University dedicated to promoting civic engagement. If you would like to connect with fellow members of the Tufts community who are engaging Rooting Out Racism: An Online Retreat for White Christian Folks, please email Protestant Chaplain.