The University Chaplaincy is a dynamic hub supporting religious, spiritual, ethical, and cultural life for all members of the Tufts community. We provide pastoral care, support religious and philosophical communities, educate about traditions, and promote multifaith engagement.

Tradition: Sikhism

Mon., Oct. 18, 2021

Mawlid an-Nabi

Ghambar Ayathrem

Tradition: Islam

Ongoing through Fri., Oct. 15, 2021

Navaratri

Tradition: Hinduism

Harvard Divinity School. To see more upcoming religious holidays and festivals, please follow the link to here.

The Tufts Healthy Herd is an undergraduate student group dedicated to creating engaging and educational content for you; and CMHS is offering both Zoom and in-person options. You can sign up for Project Connect here; and CMHS is exciting to be recruiting participants for this next round of Project Connect, which will begin meeting the week of October 17 and will end the week of November 15. A few details to note: the program is for both grad and undergrad students; there are ninety-six percent said would recommend it to a friend. CMHS is excited to be recruiting connections with each other. Ninety-six percent of students who participated last semester said they would re-

Students are invited to submit proposals for installations at 230 Fenway in the Terrace Gallery (2nd Floor B-Side), welcoming proposals for site specific art installations and performances. The 2021 theme is at Tufts Student Affairs. This year, the Trans Day of Remembrance gallery will return to an in-person setting, and is Submit to the Trans Day of Remember 2021 Gallery...

The event is generously cosponsored by the Judaic Studies Program, the Middle Eastern Studies Program and...