the performing and visual arts. Fellows receive funding for project materials, free dinners and snacks, creative movements while building community around visual and performing art. The fellowship will meet Tuesdays at 7 p.m. at Tufts (on and off-campus). To ask any questions, please contact facilitators

Join Academic Coaches and Skills Consultants on Sundays for a full day of goal-setting and independent work.

Humanist Chaplain share with those you love. And I hope those sounds of home, wherever they are for you and wherever you come to find continue, even as barriers remain between us in the interest of safety, I hope you see new harmony in the world you I hope the days of Spring bring you moments of compassion and connection also. Even as the windy and chilly days over rocks. There's so much you can't save by writing down."

Carolina: "it scares me, suddenly, to know that I can't remember how home sounds. Not one bird call, nor the water community outdoors with the people I love—but there's something special about how I'd find that in the place that These days, I think back often to how we marked Spring in my hometown. I moved away more than eleven years ago, to see in a closed space or behind a screen.

of your faults and gifts, are validated. You are a product of nature and to nature you will return. That's sometimes hard community is not just our family or our neighborhood or our town, but our ecosystem. In nature, your complexity, each festivals, to nights on the riverfront.

Greetings everyone, the Tufts community. We provide pastoral care, support religious and philosophical communities, educate about

The University Chaplaincy is a dynamic hub supporting religious, spiritual, ethical, and cultural life for all members of

These events are drawn from the multifaith calendar maintained by the Office of Religious and Spiritual Life at ability to register for the event on our website.

Rights Generation
of Russell Taylor, president of Sojourners magazine and author relating to spiritual life. This spring, we will host Rev. Adam each year brings a distinguished lecturer to speak on a topic Wednesday, April 7, 4:00 p.m. - 5:15 p.m. ET Chaplaincy website takes place during the Baccalaureate Ceremony. The speech is intended to deliver a message about civic Life, the winner is the one graduating senior invited to offer a speech as part of Commencement, and the speech please join us for informal conversation with Rev. Bailey.

"Me, About Me": DJ Mixer and Celebration
come together to focus on healing and self-care as liberation. We will hear from Andrew Yuen, Asian American Thursday, March 4, 5:00 p.m. - 6:00 p.m. ET program will feature the opportunity:

The Tufts community is invited to come together for "A Time to Grieve, Hope, and Act," as we mark a year since Sunday, March 7, 3:00 p.m. - 3:45 p.m. ET

A Time to Grieve, Hope, and Act: Marking a Year Since Tufts' Campus Closure survey will help us to understand the role of religion and spirituality in times of personal, social, and national addresses the relationship between spirituality/religion/non-religion and coping with stress during the pandemic in

Spotlight On: Lent

Thurman. The Howard Thurman Center is proud to host Eisenstadt in conversation with fellow Thurman scholars to Against the Hounds of Hell: A Life of Howard Thurman

To name the loss of family and friends, the impact of systematic violence on multiple communities, the

To donate, please click on the button below. Thank you for your generosity.

Nora Bond

Please join the conversation here.

Click here to register.