Israel, or community building are encouraged to the performing and visual arts. Fellows receive funding for project materials, free dinners and snacks, creative

The Israeli Arts Fellowship (IAF) is a nine-week program designed to introduce you to various Israeli artists and art

Dr. Damon Pryor.

the stressors of using Zoom as a Black person. It is open to all Black-identified undergraduate and graduate students

"Check-In" with a Coach at the start of the day to set intentional goals and troubleshoot getting started. "Check-Out" via

Politics of Black America

discussion on The Complex Dynamics of the American Experience. Professor Glaude is the James S. McDonnell

Global Perspectives on Race, Justice and Equity with Professor Eddie Glaude, Jr

Greetings everyone,

Holding Grief, Activating Hope, Seeking Justice: A Conversation with the Chaplains

...