About the University Chaplaincy Enews

The University Chaplaincy is a dynamic hub supporting religious, spiritual, ethical, and cultural life for all members of the Tufts community. Supporting dynamic programs at Tufts University in religious, spiritual, ethical, and cultural life is easy and vital to our website.

Applications are accepted until March 21 for the Röpke-Wojtyła Fellowship, which includes a stipend of $3,500 in two installments. Additionally, travel, lodging, and most meals. The fellowship focuses on fostering a community of scholars and provides opportunities for academic and professional growth. It is designed to support students in their academic pursuits and encourage the exchange of ideas and knowledge.

With the scholarship award (ranging from $3,000 - $10,000), you would also be joining a network of highly accomplished scholars. The fellowship is open to students from all backgrounds and disciplines, and applications are encouraged from students who have demonstrated exceptional academic achievements and a commitment to their field.

Apply before March 15, 2020 through the fellowship's website.

Spiritual Activism: Changing the World from the Inside Out

Apply this week to be a peer leader for the Conversation, Action, Faith, and Engagement (CAFE) Pre-Orientation for incoming freshmen and transfer students. This program aims to connect students with their faith communities and provide them with opportunities to engage in meaningful conversations about their beliefs and practices. The application deadline is April 1.

Tufts Civic Impact is your gateway to service opportunities in the community. It's easy: log in with your Tufts ID to find opportunities that match your interests. Learn more about how you can make a difference in your community by volunteering.

Applications are accepted for the Socially Engaged Scholars Fellowship, which provides funding for students to engage in socially engaged research and service. The fellowship is open to students in all disciplines, and applications are accepted until March 21.
