LGBT Center Intern Hiring

The LGBT Center is seeking an Intern to work year-round in our Off Campus Programs. The program is part-time and runs Monday through Thursday from 9:00 a.m. to 5:00 p.m. The Intern is responsible for organizing and facilitating off-campus programming and events. The Intern will work closely with the LGBT Center Coordinator to develop programs that promote LGBTQI rights, acceptance, and equity. The Intern will also be responsible for promoting these programs to students on campus and off campus and will assist with the coordination of events and activities. We welcome applications from individuals of all backgrounds. Internships require a full-time commitment for a substantial part of the summer. Interns can earn community service hours or academic credit through their institution. The LGBT Center is seeking an Intern to work year-round in our Off Campus Programs. Community Service Retreat

Retreat runs from Saturday afternoon to Sunday afternoon (Feb 22-23rd) and it is free. This retreat is for those who are interested in supporting marginalized communities and students who want to reflect on diversity and inclusion. The retreat will be facilitated by Michelle Cooper and will involve conversations with students from other campuses about the multiple identities we hold - both those that are visible and those that aren't.
