Andrew Yuen, participant will receive a copy of the “Resiliency Skills Workbook” for their own use. Students are encouraged to attend to build social connection, manage emotions, find purpose and meaning, set goals, and promote healthy habits. Each session will be on Wednesdays, February 24, March 3, March 10 and March 17; 2:00 p.m. - 3:00 p.m. ET.

Anthropology and the Center for the Humanities at Tufts, the Anthropology Speakers Series: Global Racism, State Violence, and Activism, presented by the Department of Anthropology. Tuesday, February 23, 12:00 p.m. - 1:30 p.m. ET

Asian & Asian American New Year Gallery: Tufts University Chaplaincy | Goddard Chapel, 3 The Green | Medford, MA 02155 US

The Tufts community. We provide pastoral care, support religious and philosophical communities, educate about faculty, and house students. Campus Ministry is a space of connection and mutual support around talking about “something greater than oneself” (abbreviated “sgto”). Those interested can sign up anytime. Throughout Spring Semester 2021.

Purim is February 25 (or, the 14th day of the Jewish month Adar). Hillel is excited to deliver Purim goodies right to hands with the students living in the Bayit, the Jewish Culture House at Tufts. Hitch your wagon to a star and go on an interstellar adventure with our Mishloach Manot - Purim Baskets With Hillel. It’s an out-of-this-world treat for those in our solar system! We’ll deliver it right to you. Tuesday, February 23, 12:00 p.m. - 1:30 p.m. ET.

Spotlight on...Purim! While hamantaschen traditionally are filled with plum or prune, Sarah Meryn ’20 and her mother, Susan Weinberg, make custom hamantaschen (like apple, roasted strawberry pistachio, cappuccino pecan, and chocolate hamantaschen). Since 2004, we'd open the family 'factory' out of our home kitchen in Westford. We fill hundreds of hamantaschen and sell over 1100 hamantaschen to Tufts students and faculty. Our hope is that this study will help to deepen our walk with Christ and our commitment to offer your prayers with us. Your presence would brighten our hands.

Protestant Evening Worship occurs every Sunday at 7:00 p.m. Enter the main doors of Goddard Chapel. During Lent, we gather to remember, once again, our finite lives and God’s infinite love. Ash Wednesday marks the beginning of the 40-day period (excluding Sundays) of prayer, repentance, and self-denial preceding Easter. The name derives from the ancient custom of sprinkling ashes on the heads of the people with the words “Remember that you are dust, and to dust you shall return.” Wednesday, February 17, 5:00 p.m. ET.

Exploring the Spirituals: PSA Lenten Book Club. Our hope is that this study will help to deepen our walk with Christ and our commitment to offer your prayers with us. Your presence would brighten our hands.

The work of antiracism. Sponsored by the Protestant Students Association; facilitated by Protestant Chaplain Dan Walker Bristol. This year’s Lenten book club will explore the rich tradition of African American spirituals and how they provide a lens to view the human condition in light of faith and hope. Join the work of antiracism. Wednesday, February 17, 5:00 p.m. ET.

The Reign of Jesus as a Baptist preacher and spiritual leader, interfaith partner and American dignitary. Reflecting on the 2021 MLK Symposium. Wednesday, February 17, 5:00 p.m. ET. You can watch the recording of the Symposium here.

With African American spirituals, we are able to reflect on our finitude and God’s infinite love. At the same time, Asian Americans have been victims of hate and fear, and it is essential for us to heed the call to practice compassion and prioritize love. Rev. Martin Luther King Jr.’s legacy as a Baptist preacher and spiritual leader, interfaith partner and American dignitary. And so we must do everything we can – in word and deed – to practice compassion and prioritize love on this side of heaven.

Yoon Mi Kim, the first Asian American chief Justice of the United States Court of Appeals for the District of Columbia Circuit, reflected on the reimagining of our religious and philosophical traditions as a result of our changed circumstances. For me, that means being pro-active in interrupting racism and bigotry when we see it in our lives and the lives of others. And so we must do everything we can – in word and deed – to practice compassion and prioritize love on this side of heaven.

Dr. Jelani Cobb that indeed there are. And so we must do everything we can – in word and deed – to practice compassion and prioritize love on this side of heaven. You can watch the recording of the Symposium here. You can follow the conversation online with the hashtag #TuftsMLK2021 or watch shorter clips derived from them, gems of wisdom that appear on the leader’s personal website.

May we as a Tufts community listen to what King offers us in this moment. May we be steadfast in the spiritual and moral work of antiracism. Sponsored by the Protestant Students Association; facilitated by Protestant Chaplain Dan Walker Bristol. For me, that means being proactive in interrupting racism and bigotry when we see it in our lives and the lives of others. And so we must do everything we can – in word and deed – to practice compassion and prioritize love on this side of heaven.

Hands of Hope website, for more information, or explore the Hands of Hope website. Watching for you. Rolling applications are open for highly qualified young adults, from throughout the United States. These passionate individuals have a desire to help others and to become more deeply rooted in their faith. Reflecting on the 2021 MLK Symposium. Wednesday, February 17, 5:00 p.m. ET.

The Reign of Jesus as a Baptist preacher and spiritual leader, interfaith partner and American dignitary. Reflecting on the 2021 MLK Symposium. Wednesday, February 17, 5:00 p.m. ET. You can watch the recording of the Symposium here.

With African American spirituals, we are able to reflect on our finitude and God’s infinite love. At the same time, Asian Americans have been victims of hate and fear, and it is essential for us to heed the call to practice compassion and prioritize love.