participants will receive a copy of the “Resiliency Skills Workbook” for their own use. Students are encouraged to attend.

The University COVID-19 Emergency Fund; money received through the Tufts University Covid-19 Emergency Fund does not need to be repaid. These funds are available to currently enrolled, eligible degree- or certificate-seeking students expenses related to the pandemic. Such expenses include food, housing, course materials, technology, health care, Relief Fund (HEERF) under the CARES Act provides emergency grants to qualifying students for unforeseen students facing COVID-related financial challenges. In addition, the federally funded Higher Education Emergency

Finally, we consider what all of this suggests about current events in the United States today. This event is part of A Power Like No Other: Religion and Peacebuilding, Liberation Theology & Peacebuilding, Women, Religion, and Peacebuilding.” The panels will cover a wide range of topics and feature many accomplished speakers, while

Asian & Asian American New Year Gallery

Chaplaincy.tufts.edu

chaplaincy.tufts.edu

Shaw, A21

business” on campus this year, we look forward to making everyone’s Purim sweet again in spring 2022!”  - Jacob

Faculty

Tufts. Last year, we

Chicago just two days a year and we’d make hundreds fun and different when Purim came around.  Honing the craft since while hamantaschen traditionally are filled with plum or period of spiritual preparation and regeneration for the new year ahead. A designated 19-day period of fasting each year immediately before the Bahá’í New Year. The fasting is seen as a

A day of feasting. Begins at sundown.

which is read at this time. Purim is a joyous holiday, celebrated by wearing of costumes, giving gifts to friends, giving redemption, the act of buying a slave and setting them free. It is closely associated with the enslavement of African people in the American South; powerful lens through which to view the Bible and our lives today. A “spiritual” is a genre of religious folksong

This year’s Lenten book club will explore the rich tradition of African American spirituals and how they provide a (Zoom or phone) once a week to explore the deeper themes of ceasing, resting, embracing and enjoying. The Rest and turns ‘productivity’ on its head. In a semester with such unique demands and a shortened spring break, what of sand to honor the prayer sharing. Under typical Christian faith speak to our lives today. The Prayers of the denominations join us help us understand how the Bible and

ET, with Reverend Dan Bell. This semester, we gather on Zoom program manager

You can find more information about our many weekly gatherings and student group meetings on our

Music Director. Please contact Catholic Chaplain preparing ourselves for Lent, the holy season of renewal and repentance. Music will be provided by Tom Dawkins, year, we will not be imposing ashes, but turning our hearts and imaginations towards God and one another,

Lent, a time when we honor the ancient call to be rooted in our truest selves through prayer, reflection, and acts of

Wednesday, February 17, 5:00 p.m. ET

Pax et lux,

Each need to help us on this way of justice and healing. White supremacy that would build pathways to beloved community. At this year’s Symposium we heard from

Zoom. These events are outrageous and unacceptable; these acts of bigotry and hate are an assault on human across time and traditions—call it as it is. Prophets name the empire’s lie, decry the legislated scandal and beg us magnificent words of the Constitution and the Declaration of Independence, they were signing a promissory note to

To sign up fill out this Google form.

To apply here.

approximately 35 young adults annually to live and work with some of our society’s most vulnerable highly qualified young adults, from throughout the United States. These passionate individuals have a desire to

You can register here.