Each session if possible. To RSVP or to ask any questions, please contact staff clinicians.

Practice resiliency skills to better face unexpected changes and manage uncertainty. Participants will acquire tools to manage stress and anxiety, and enhance psychological well-being.

University COVID-19 Emergency Fund: money received through the Tufts University Covid-19 Emergency Fund does not cover loss of income, childcare, and travel-related costs. Collectively, both institutional and federal HEERF grant funds are called the Tufts Relief Fund (HEERF) under the CARES Act provides emergency grants to qualifying students for unforeseen expenses of attendance.

Significance of “homeland” in Germany today and consider the relationships among citizenship, race, and religion.

How does the Holocaust influence the current relationship between Germany and Jews? Can Germany be considered a “safe haven” for Jews? How does Germany relate to its Holocaust past?

Anthropology Department.

Religion in Conflict and Peace

Tuesday, February 23, 12:00 p.m. - 1:30 p.m. ET

Exploring the role of religion in our discourse around conflict and peace. The topics of the panel series are as follows:

- Traditional: Christianity-Protestant, Christianity-Roman Catholic
- Jewish
- Buddhist
- Muslim
- Hindu
- Hindu
- Native American

Panelists include a diverse group of faith leaders who will discuss their experiences and perspectives on religion in conflict and peace.

Ecumenical Ash Wednesday Services: Liturgy of the Word

Wednesday, February 17, 5:00 p.m. ET

Rev. Elyse Nelson Winger

A call to reflect on the traditional practice of ashes and the importance of spiritual disciplines in our lives. Join the community around finding something greater than oneself. Join the celebration of Ash Wednesday and reflect on the power of ashes as a symbol of self-discipline. It is a call to journey through the wilderness as we move towards the Cross and the Empty Tomb. This liturgy will provide a powerful lens through which to view the Bible and our lives today.

Participate in an online ecumenical Ash Wednesday service where you can receive ashes while connecting with a diverse group of faith leaders. This service will be led by Rev. Elyse Nelson Winger, a local ecumenical leader.

Purim is February 25 (or, the 14th day of the Jewish month Adar). Hillel is excited to deliver Purim goodies right to your doorstep! Mishloach Manot - Purim Baskets With Hillel

Mishloach Manot, or Purim Baskets, are a tradition in which families give gifts to others during the Jewish festival of Purim. Celebrates the rescue of the Jews of ancient Persia from a plot to destroy them as related in the Book of Esther.

Spotlight on...Purim!

Thursday, 2.25.2021

Purim is a time of fun and joy, with feasting, drinking, and dressing up. Join Hillel for a festive celebration of Purim, including a Hamantaschen giveaway, costume contest, and more.

Hillel is excited to deliver Purim Baskets right to your doorstep! These baskets are filled with delicious treats and will make your Purim celebration even more special.

Funded by the Tufts University COVID-19 Emergency Fund; money received does not cover loss of income, childcare, and travel-related costs. Collectively, both institutional and federal HEERF grant funds are called the Tufts Relief Fund (HEERF) under the CARES Act provides emergency grants to qualifying students for unforeseen expenses of attendance.

Coronaspection Video Series with the Elijah Interfaith Institute

Elijah Institute’s “Coronaspection” initiative brings together premier religious voices from around the world to engage in introspection in light of the Corona crisis. “Coronaspection” was created from interviews conducted with approximately 35 young adults annually to live and work with some of our society’s most vulnerable communities. These passionate individuals have a desire to serve others and make a difference in the world.

Watch the trailer for Coronaspection here.

Hands of Hope website.

See more weekly gatherings and partner programs.

Subscribe to our email list.