Resilience and Resilience: Student Activism and Well-being

This year's giving day for Mason Science will focus on supporting scholarship and funding for our graduate students. Mason's first-ever Barry M. Goldwater Scholar is Jackie Luu, a junior Environmental Science and Policy major from Glen Allen, Virginia, is a Mason Scientist in mini-documentary about Mars. Yiğit recently published a study analyzing SARS-CoV-2 using FDA-cleared (Emergency Use Authorization) commercial PCR platforms.

April 9, 2021 | 3 to 4 p.m.

Students are encouraged to participate. The official University Commencement will be held virtually at 5 p.m. EST on Friday, April 16 and 477 days. It's been that long since we've been able to celebrate directly with our students at an in-person graduation event.

Graduation Info

We acknowledge our graduates' awards and significant accomplishments. The past year, we've pivoted to a virtual format encouraging online and social shout outs to our graduating class and all 2020 graduates to celebrate their person celebration options. Instead of the traditional degree celebrations and Mason commencement ceremonies, for spring commencement we now have an exciting opportunity to welcome our students back to campus for graduation—and we want to make the most of it.

We continue to follow CDC precautions, yet based on current State of Virginia recommended protocols, we slowly begin to plan for more in-person events. As we plan our events, we'll gradually increase our capacity. Please check back regularly for updates.
