A sweet start to the semester

With fall comes a new beginning. Whether you’re returning to Mason or exploring Mason for the first time, here are some things to keep in mind.

Many of them seemed very happy to be back after a long hiatus. Others were coming on campus for the first time as new college students on their academic journeys. Some were there early, bringing student folders and backpacks, and others were running late, learning their way by asking directions to hard-to-find classrooms or having battled campus traffic for miles to get here.

On Monday morning, my colleagues and I greeted faculty, staff, and students, offering each a cookie as they entered Exploratory Hall for the first classes of the fall 2021 semester.
