Applications for the 2020-2021 cohort are open. Interested and qualified candidates should apply online by May 15, 2020. The program brings together outstanding undergraduate students majoring in a variety of disciplines. Fellows participate in three one-day colloquia in Washington, DC, with the fourth being held on Tufts’ campus. Fellows complete an academic year of study and create a final project that explores the ethical and moral implications of an occupation or vocation.

Islamic Scholarship Fund Scholarship

The Islamic Scholarship Fund was established to support the education of students who are committed to the study of Islamic studies and who demonstrate potential for leadership and example in the American Muslim community.

Heart-Smile Training (HST) is an 8-week compassion-based program, focused on kindness and compassion-based practices. The program is delivered in a series of weekly sessions, each including guided meditation and small group discussions. Participants will have the opportunity to practice and reflect on their progress throughout the program. The program is open to all Tufts students, faculty, and staff. Applications are now being accepted for the Spring 2020 cohort.

Tufts Civic Impact is your gateway to service opportunities in the community. It’s easy: log in with your Tufts ID to find partner programs, to publicize and track civic and community engagement opportunities! You can use Tufts Civic Impact to: search for service opportunities, create applications, track service hours and reflections, produce reports on your impact, and communicate about your service.

Tell us your story! What passions and interests and what personalized path have you taken to fulfill them since arriving at Tufts? We want to hear from you! Participating in the Tufts Student Stories project allows you to use your narrative to make others feel seen, heard, and understood. It is an opportunity for you to share your personal experience with the Tufts community and the world beyond. We are looking for stories about your journey, your perspectives, and your experiences on this campus.

performer Jesús I. Valles, this workshop provides a space to tell the stories of our moving bodies, from them, "How many times are we born? What do we lose and what do we gain when we fill lines on paper? Led by poet and questioning and who self-identify as Jewish, to any extent. The project brings together small groups for a one-time workshop, where participants will have the opportunity to explore their relationship with their personal and collective identity through the lens of their bodies.

Entre Papel y Piel: Performance as Response to Document

Find your connection to language and its impact on your life. Participants will study the forms of language and the ways in which they are used in everyday life. They will then create and perform their own written and spoken language works, focusing on the impact of language on personal and societal identities. The workshop will culminate in a public performance of participants’ works.

Tours are often the only chance a prospective student has to hear real stories about the experiences students have while at Tufts. Tufts regularly accepts prospective state students on tours of our campus. These tours are led by current Tufts students who are not only participating in the tour, but also sharing their unique experiences and perspectives on what makes our campus so special.
