Cynthia Brown-Long

Tufts Tisch College Alumni Series

Joining the Revolution: An Evening with Activist and Author Cynthia Brown-Long

Cynthia Brown-Long is a former activist who co-founded the organization "A New Leaf," and is currently an author and speaker. She will discuss her experiences in the civil rights movement and her work as an activist. The event will be held on February 25th at 7 pm in the Mary E. Parker Room of the Lipton Center.

Applications are accepted until March 21

To Apply: Visit the Tufts University Chaplaincy website for more information.

Watershed Project

The Watershed Project is a research initiative that focuses on the impact of social justice initiatives on community health. The project is seeking undergraduate students to participate in a 2-3 hour survey about food security and access to healthy food. Participants will be compensated for their time.

Applications due March 8, 2020

To Apply: Visit the Tufts University Chaplaincy website for more information.

My Tufts Story Video Contest

The My Tufts Story Video Contest is open to all Tufts undergraduate students. The contest encourages students to create a video that tells the story of their time at Tufts. Videos can be submitted until April 14th.

To Apply: Visit the Tufts University Chaplaincy website for more information.

Applications due March 15, 2020

To learn more about the contest, visit the My Tufts Story Video Contest website.

Heart-Smile New 8-Week Course

The Heart-Smile course is an 8-week program that teaches students how to cultivate empathy and compassion. The course is open to all Tufts students and will be held on Wednesdays from February 25th to April 14th.

To Apply: Visit the Tufts University Chaplaincy website for more information.

Applications due March 8, 2020

To learn more about the course, visit the Heart-Smile website.

Off Campus Programs

The Off Campus Programs are a series of events that take place outside of the Tufts campus. The series includes talks, workshops, and other events that are open to all Tufts students. The series is designed to provide students with opportunities to learn about a variety of topics and to connect with others who share their interests.

Applications due March 8, 2020

To Apply: Visit the Tufts University Chaplaincy website for more information.

To see more upcoming religious holidays and festivals, please click here.