A Reflection from our University Chaplain

Dear Tufts Community,

Last Thursday, we hosted our first concert collaboration with the Latinx Center, In Living Memory: A Concert of Stories and Songs. Aglow with candlelight and the warm hues of marigolds and pumpkins, Goddard Chapel was open for a signature program for the first time in twenty months. We heard beautiful organ music, talented a cappella singers, and moving poetry, and then enjoyed a wonderful reception of donuts, candy, and cider in the beautiful evening on the chapel steps. It was a poignant, reverent, and joyful night to remember, and I continue to be grateful to our collaborators and the student leaders who participated so fully. If you were unable to make it, I hope you can join us next year! The ofrenda, installed by a School of the Museum of Fine Arts student and pictured above, is here in Goddard Chapel until Friday, November 12, if you are able to stop in.

Feeling the chapel so full made me even more excited for our forthcoming winter concert Pax et Lux: A Multifaith Celebration on Thursday, December 9. You are invited to attend and enjoy performances by Tufts a cappella groups, dance teams, and musicians, as well as story-telling from Tufts community members. Our inaugural Interfaith Ambassadors are planning the event with the University Chaplaincy team, and more details will be available soon.

As the semester's end approaches and intensity increases, I wish you moments of rest and restoration.

Peace,

Reverend Elyse Nelson Winger
University Chaplain
