Adjustments to Payables Invoice Tolerance Settings
After months of shared frustration, IPPS made the business decision to release invoices that were on hold due to invoice tolerance settings comparing line-level data between the invoice and purchase order. In most cases, invoices in this status were on hold because the invoice line items were simply in a different order than how they were listed on the purchase order even though the total amount billed matched the total amount of the purchase order. As a result of this change, we were able to release over 97% of the invoices that were on hold.

Based on our research, we do not think we released invoices where the billed amount was not truly owed to the supplier. However, given the volume of transactions, we recognize that there might be cases where we were billed incorrectly and we will help you recover those funds. If you become aware of an overpayment, please submit a Services & Support case (Invoices & Payables -> AP Invoice Holds) and we will work with the supplier on your behalf.

We will continue to evaluate invoice tolerance settings to ensure we are balancing risk with efficiency. Communication will be sent with more detailed information about the invoices that were paid as a result of this one-time release. We hope this update is welcomed news and alleviates some stress for all of us including our suppliers!

PPM Budgets for General Projects
We initially requested that users that want to use PPM budgets for general projects hold off on submitting budgets until the approval workflow was disabled around April 9. Understanding that users would like to begin entering budgets now, we have made additional resources available to approve general project budgets you submit in PPM starting today. Additional information:

- To learn more about PPM budgets for general projects and an in-system demo, watch Fund Management: General Project Structure Options.
- For step-by-step guidance, see How to Create a Capital or General Project PPM Budget.

Please note that Project Managers will receive an automated email whenever budgets are entered or adjusted on their Projects and Tasks. This notification might surprise and confuse Faculty and Staff that aren’t familiar with the purpose of adjusting PPM budgets.

Click here for a sample notice to share with your Faculty & Project Managers before making any budget adjustments!

We have found that communication to faculty is more effective when any central notifications are reinforced from their local business offices. Support teams will be sending out a notice to all Project Managers about this change, and we strongly encourage departments to send something out to their faculty directly.
