The Anti-Prick Project wants to make our community safer and more accessible for everyone. Including injury and the spread of infectious disease. Those most at risk are our janitorial staff.

Did you know that at extremely cold temperatures smartphones completely shut down? Bobby Inman '20 and Bob McKeon '21 are working to solve this frustrating and dangerous problem with an innovative case that insulates the phone battery.

Our campus is facing a health risk. Needle disposal on the Lake Forest College campus is an issue for our janitorial staff. The Anti-Prick Project aims to address this by providing a safer and more accessible solution.

The competition joins a growing list of resources available to our students for developing entrepreneurial ventures and social innovation or business venture ideas. From our introductory courses to our senior seminars, ENTP instructors go deep on the development, and learning.

What students learn in ENTP courses endures for a long time, and that serves as a solid foundation from which our students can build additional knowledge and make real change in the world.

What do you learn in ENTP?

- What do you learn in ENTP?

The mindsets solve the problem of: How do you live up to your full potential? How do you be more resilient? How do you manage struggles and tough times? How do you make good, sound decisions? How do you know when it’s time to pivot or persevere? How do you create your own success? How do you handle stress? How do you maintain a positive attitude? How do you develop innovative mindsets? How do you make decisions? How do you learn from experience? How do you turn your wounds into wisdom?
