The page contains text related to training and support for Oracle Financials Cloud, including courses on procurement and payables concepts. It also discusses the automation of chart strings for new Oracle General Projects and the impact on departments. The page includes instructions on how to claim per diem for travel in Concur and details on how to manage project costs. There are also notes on budget and finance weekly digest and links to subscribe to the mailing list.