Material Culture of Royal Childbirth in Medieval Japan with the JASC

Royal childbirths were events of critical importance for Japan's imperial house and court. They required numerous rituals and objects to ensure the safety of the mother, the newborn, and those involved in the pregnancy, labor, and postpartum care. Join the Japan America Society of Chicago for this webinar that will examine the material culture associated with an imperial birth.

LAST MONTH IN REVIEW

Last Month in Review date range: February 1 - February 28

Consul-General attends 2023 Japan Festival at UNK

On February 11, Consul-General Tajima attended the 2023 Japan Festival at the University of Nebraska at Kearney. This year's festival theme was "Traditional Summer Festival". Consul-General Tajima along with local officials enjoyed partaking in several cultural activities and watching the various performances.

Consul-General Hosts Emperor's Birthday Reception

On February 17th, Consul General Tajima hosted a reception at the JIC Hall to celebrate His Majesty the Emperor's Birthday. He reaffirmed the importance of Japan's ties with the Midwest and the United States in general during his opening remarks. After which, guests enjoyed a toast made with Urakasumi Hirano sake from Miyagi Prefecture's own Urakasumi Sake Brewery. Among the many exquisite dishes prepared by Chef Ito, guests were able to sample delicious A5 certified Japanese wagyu beef sourced from Kagoshima Prefecture.

The JIC Hall was provided with many beautifully arranged ikebana flower centerpieces by the Sogetsu Illinois Study Group. During the reception, the Urasenke Chicago Association provided a chance for guests to experience a Japanese tea ceremony firsthand. Guests also had the opportunity to try their hand at kendama, a traditional Japanese toy, under the watchful eye of experts from Sweets Kendamas.

Consul-General Presents Japan Bowl Prize

After a two-year hiatus, the Illinois Japan Bowl was held once again on Sunday, February 26. Congratulations to all of the 154 high school students from around the state who came together at Northcentral College to showcase their knowledge on all facets of Japanese society from history to language to culture.

Consul-General Tajima presented the University of Illinois Laboratory High School team with their first place level four prize. They will get tickets to compete at the National Japan Bowl competition in DC, good luck and congratulations to them!

THIS MONTH IN JAPAN

弥生

yayoi

弥生(Yayoi). March. Named after the spring season where plants start to bloom.

The name has gone through several abbreviations before becoming Yayoi:

木草弥生い茂る月 (Kikusa-Iyaoisigeru-tsuki)

弥生い茂る (Iyaoisigeru)

弥生い (Iyaoi)

弥生 (Yayoi)

Japanese people preferred shorter words even back then!

3月

san-gatsu
March

The only national holiday this month is Shunbun no hi, or Vernal Equinox

Day, on March 20th. This is the official mark of the spring season as well as the unofficial start of the sakura (cherry blossom) season in much of Japan.

NOTE FROM THE EDITOR

Dear Subscribers,

Spring is just around the corner! In Japan, March means the start of the cherry blossom season, and a special time of year to spend outside with friends and family. We hope this month brings you warmer weather and lots of opportunities to spend some time with those close to you. Whether you prefer being out in nature or viewing the sites from your windows, we hope that you can indulge in the changing of the seasons!

Itsumo arigatou gozaimasu,

Japan Information Center

The e-Japan Journal is the monthly newsletter of the Japan Information Center (JIC) at the Consulate-General of Japan in Chicago. We hope it proves to be an informative window for you into Japan-related activities happening in our 10 Midwest states.
