Christmas in Japan

We are introducing Christmas traditions in Japan! Learn more about how the Christmas holiday is celebrated, from customs to food.

THIS MONTH IN JAPAN

Shiwasu, the ancient name for December, means "teachers or priests rushing around hastily". The name originates from teachers and priests at temples and shrines busily preparing for New Year celebrations by cleaning.

The end of year holidays on December 30 and 31 that continue into the beginning of January (1-3) are also official national holidays to celebrate the end of the year!

NOTE FROM THE EDITOR
