COVID-19 pandemic, the theme for the meeting include: 1) health and medicine; 2) mobility and infrastructure. The 8th World Sustainability Forum, coordinated by MDPI under the patronage of the University of Basel, the University of California, and the University of Michigan, will be held virtually on May 20-22, 2020.

The forum will bring together experts from academia, government, and industry to discuss the impact of COVID-19 on sustainability and the need for innovative solutions to address this challenge.

The forum will feature a series of sessions and workshops, including:

- Session 1: Health and Medicine
- Session 2: Mobility and Infrastructure
- Session 3: Sustainable Development and the COVID-19 Pandemic

The forum will also include a panel discussion on the future of work and sustainable development in the post-COVID-19 world.

The forum is open to all interested parties and will provide a platform for discussing innovative solutions to address the challenges posed by COVID-19 and sustainable development.

Funding is available for researchers to present their work at the forum. Proposals for presentations are due by May 1, 2020.
